DID YOU KNOW?

Seafood - the pure clear blue waters around the West coast of Scotland are rich in molluscs and crustaceans, they are an important part of the marine food chain and provide pubs and restaurants with a wealth of tasty seafood for locals and visitors to enjoy.

The sea provides a large part of the employment in the area. Fishermen catching langoustines, crabs, lobsters, clams and many varieties of sea fish. Scottish salmon farms provide many local jobs for growing the fresh Scottish salmon you get on your plate.

Mussel farming is also another great provider of employment in the area.
